Summary of Legislation: This bill adds the purchase, installation, and maintenance of road and traffic signs to the list of expenditures for which funds collected through emergency telephone system fees may be used.

Effective Date: July 1, 2002.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: This bill allows local units of government that impose emergency telephone system fees to use this fee revenue for the purchase and maintenance of road or traffic signs. This bill could potentially reduce expenditures from accounts such as the Motor Vehicle Highway Account, the Local Road and Street Account, or other county or municipal funds used for signs if expenditures from those funds are replaced with expenditures from Emergency Telephone System Fee revenue.
